

A guest from Bulgaria in Higher Vocational State School in Włocławek

Monday, 29 March 2010

Between 17th and 22nd March 2010 Milena Katsarska – a head of English Philology Department in The Paisii Hilendarski University of Plovdiv was a guest in Higher Vocational State School in Włocławek. Milena Katsarska arrived in Włocławek in the framework of teachers' exchange in LLP Erasmus and she delivered lectures for our students from English Philology. She is a specialist of American Studies, especially American literature, culture and movies. Apart from didactic activities our guest had the opportunity to meet staff from English Language Department in order to exchange experience, methods and techniques of English language teaching. Milena Katsarska also visited many historical and cultural places in Włocławek and Toruń, especially she was interested in museums and exhibitions. Higher Vocational State School in Włocławek has been cooperating with The Paisii Hilendarski University of Plovdiv for a few years and each year both institutions exchange many students and academic teachers.
