

Higher Vocational State School in Wloclawek has new international partners

Monday, 29 March 2010

The authorities of Higher Vocational State School in Wloclawek signed five new bilateral agreements with international universities within the framework of LLP Erasmus. The cooperation concerns exchange of students, teachers and academic staff with the following institutions: Obchodni Akademie a Wyssi Odborna Skola - Valasske Mezirici, Czech Republic, ISG - Instituto Superior de Gestao Lisbon, Portugal, IT University of Copenhagen Copenhagen, w Denmark, Haute Ecole Robert Schuman Arslon, Belgium and Universidad de La Laguna - La Laguna, Tenerife, Canary Islands, Spain. For the first time Higher Vocational State School in Wloclawek includes international partners for the new fields of study like: pedagogy or information technology. Currently Higher Vocational State School in Wloclawek cooperates with 22 international universities.